THE SMALL THINGS OF A DAY.

Minor Occurrences in and About the City.

Tooth filling made painless by the use of cocaine by S. T. Mason, dentist, 1201 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

Washington vs. Boston, 4:15 to-day.

New styles of boys' suits just received at Barnum's.

Jacob Lerner, one of the watchmen at the court house, has resigned.

The grand jury is still examining large buildings and making inquiry as to their safety.

Judge Snell yesterday sent Thomas Williams to jail for six months stealing books from Rowley's auction rooms.

Andrew J. Kimball was yesterday appointed a first class private on the police force, vice C. M. Nicholson, dismissed.

The grand stand to be used at the Garfield monument dedication is nearly completed. It will seat about 1,500 persons.

Mr. T. W. Smith intends to begin the renovation of his building next Monday, and will have it ready for occupancy by July 1.

Mr. Edward F. Dwyer last evening received a telegram announcing the safe arrival at her dock in New York of the North German Lloyd steamer, Albatross.

A council of Baptist churches and ministers has refused to recognize the Snow Creek Baptist church of Hillsdale, N. C., as a regular and independent church.

Count Eugene Reuter de Mallersburg was yesterday given eighteen months to jail by Judge Snell for stealing books from the congressional library and clothing.

A certificate of incorporation in the name of the Real Estate Improvement Company has been filed with the recorder. The capital stock is $100,000, divided into shares of $5 each.

Berlitz &amp; Co. of the "Berlitz School of Languages," has filed a bill in equity against Christian Beck, to restrain him from teaching, claiming that it is in violation of contract made with the complainants in 1885.

James H. Aloyner has put in an answer to wife's (Kate J. Aloyner) petition for divorce on the ground of cruel treatment and intoxication, and allowance of alimony. He does not deny the charge, but simply states his inability to pay alimony.

Justice Cox yesterday quashed the writ of certiorari in the case of Ruppel vs. Rose. The question involved was the power of the master of change of venue, and the court held that it was not a magistrate performing the duties of his office.

Mr. Thomas H. Walsh has received a letter from Rev. Father Charles O'Reilly, treasurer of the Irish National League, stating the receipt of $90.25, which was the unexpended balance of the funds collected for the mass meeting held here on the 14th instant opposing coercion in Ireland.
